

2023 Gateway Vineyard • Arbuckle Ridge

Scott Saunders. Fifth-generation Paso native. Arbuckle Ridge started as a single barrel in 2011, separate from the family Hearst Ranch wines. Scott grew up in these vines. This is the passion project, not the regional bottling.

Dark cocoa and cedar next to blackberry and graphite on the nose. Palate explodes with boysenberry, plum, a mineral edge, refreshing acidity, and a finish that keeps going. Medium-bodied, classical mountain fruit. James Suckling: concentrated currant and mountain berry sliced through with
