Maayan Koschitzky is Wine Enthusiast's 40 Under 40 Tastemaker.

Koschitzky is Director of Winemaking at Atelier Melka. Wine Enthusiast named him a 2019 40 Under 40 Tastemaker. He came to Napa from Israel in 2011, worked at Screaming Eagle and Dalla Valle, then built this negociant Cabernet with David Green. Royal Prince is his sole negociant project: blue-chip access without blue-chip ceremony.

One hundred percent Cabernet. Twenty-five hundred cases.

The 2021 is 100 percent Cabernet Sauvignon, aged 20 months in mostly new French oak, 14.9 percent alcohol, 2,500 cases. David Green's sourcing book and Koschitzky's blending eye meet in one Napa bottle. This is not a leftover lot from a cult house. It is the Cabernet they built to open.

MAAYAN KOSCHITZKY

Atelier Melka · 40 Under 40 · negociant Napa Cabernet

Maayan was born and raised in Israel and moved to Napa in 2011. He refined his craft at cult Napa cellars, then became Director of Winemaking at Atelier Philippe Melka, walking vineyards from Russian River Pinot through Howell Mountain Cabernet. Wine Enthusiast named him a 2019 40 Under 40 Tastemaker. Robb Report has profiled the work. On a winter night in 2018 he and David Green stood in David's kitchen with a sample of Royal Prince Pinot before roast chicken. David later bought out his investors and made Maayan an equity partner. The photograph on this page is Maayan. Royal Prince is the negociant Cabernet he builds with Green. The 2021 is 100 percent Cabernet, 2,500 cases, meant to drink now and hold through the next decade.

2021 IN THE GLASS

Decanter (94) wrote that the 2021 opens with dark berry fruit, dried violets, creme de cassis, leather, charcuterie, and intensely rich, dark, loamy earth. Medium to full-bodied, broad-shouldered, muscular tannins with an exacting, fine-grained quality, and a long earthy dried-violet finish. Aged 20 months in mostly new French oak. The Tasting Panel (94) found dense blackberry and plum skin, tongue-coating, with bold coffee-bean tannin. Jeb Dunnuck (93+) called it classic Cabernet: cassis, black cherry, sappy herbs, graphite, minerality, ripe building tannin. Wine Enthusiast (90, Elaine Chukan Brown) noted mixed berries, bay laurel, cracked pepper, cocoa, and sweet cassis. 100 percent Cabernet Sauvignon. Decant 60 to 90 minutes.
