

2022 Estate Pinot Noir • Artesa Winery

Spain's Raventos Codorniu family has made wine since 1551. Artesa is Catalan for handcrafted. The family opened this Carneros hilltop in 1991 as Codorniu Napa, then committed to still Pinot and Chardonnay under the Artesa name. Paula Borgo, Director of Winemaking since 2023,

The winery points to plum, strawberry, cranberry, and rose on the nose, then raspberry, blueberry, red cherry, and sandalwood. James Suckling (91, June 2025) kept it lifted and focused: red cherries, pomegranate, dried herbs, subtle oak, smooth tannins, bright acidity, a clean midweight finish. Drink
