TOP SELLING POINTS

Charles McKahn, Chappellet then Rutherford.

Charles decided at 15 he would make wine. Cal Poly enology, harvest at McManis, then Napa in 2011 under Phillip Titus at Chappellet on Pritchard Hill. Assistant winemaker there, then winemaker at William Harrison in Rutherford from 2016. North Bay Business Journal Forty Under 40 in 2022. This is the family Cabernet.

Made at The Caves on Soda Canyon.

McKahn crafts this Cabernet at The Caves at Soda Canyon, 2275 Soda Canyon Road, a hillside cave overlooking the southern Napa Valley. Other serious Napa houses work the same cave. Staff can sell the place in one sentence: hillside cave, Soda Canyon, Napa Cabernet.

CHARLES MCKAHN

Founder · Cal Poly enology · Chappellet · William Harrison · Forty Under 40

Charles started in the lab and cellar at McManis Family Vineyards in 2007, then studied enology at Cal Poly San Luis Obispo. He moved to Napa in 2011 for harvest at Chappellet on Pritchard Hill. Phillip Titus kept him on as enologist, then assistant winemaker. In 2016 he became winemaker at William Harrison in Rutherford. The family founded McKahn Wines in 2014, when he was 25. Denise has said they sold the ski boat to start the label. Kevin, Denise, Brittany, and Charles still run it. He has said his job is to shepherd fruit so the wine tastes like the variety and the place. McKahn crafts at The Caves at Soda Canyon. In 2026 he also joined Titus Vineyards as winemaker. This bottle is the family Cabernet.

2023 IN THE GLASS

James Suckling on the 2023: dark and lightly earthy, blackcurrants, crushed rocks, licorice and dried sage. Full-bodied, taut and chewy yet polished, with vivid dark fruit in the middle. Even and smooth finish. Try in 2027.

100% Cabernet Sauvignon · Napa Valley · 14.9% ABV · Cork · 750ml

PAIRING AND SERVICE

Pan-seared ribeye with rosemary · Herb-crusted lamb with roasted garlic · A Saturday roast with a dark pan sauce

Serve near 62 F in a Bordeaux glass. A 20 to 40 minute decant if you want the crushed rock and sage to catch up with the blackcurrant.
